Press Release

For Immediate Release

Toronto, Canada. September 18, 2017

Acclaimed singer, musician and songwriter Eric De Gray has released his second CD To Where You Are.

To Where You Are is a compilation CD, featuring songs from Broadway, standards and the movies, pop opera, as well as two original compositions. The concept album transports listeners through a musical love story; from dreaming of a first love, through heartbreak, and ending with thankfulness and homecoming.

“Wherever you are in the world, everyone has a love story,” said Eric De Gray. “This album transports the listener to wherever they are in their own personal story.”

Eric was born and raised in the small town of Morrisburg, Canada, but now calls Toronto his home. He attributes his love for music to the teachings and encouragement of his mother, Marion. His passion for entertaining took him through his teens as a professional ice skater, followed by his University years where he attained a Degree in Music Performance at the University of Toronto. He landed his first major role shortly after that as the Beast in Beauty and the Beast. Eric currently shares his musical gifts with passengers aboard various major cruise lines around the world, which he has been doing for over 25 years.

To Where You Are is available on iTunes, Amazon, Spotify and CD Baby.

Press:

"I know talent. After working 20 some years in Hollywood, I know that you've either got it or you don't! And Eric De Gray has got IT!"

*Academy Award and Emmy Award winning
Reba Merrill*

"The showstopper, however, was an evening with entertainer Eric De Gray, whose voice and showmanship packed the Cabaret Lounge the night he took center stage. De Gray had a great touch for involving the audience and so clearly loves performing that it was infectious. His powerful tenor and folksy stories meant there's something for everyone in his show."

Tom Stieghorst, Travel Weekly, March 2016
